NEWS RELEASE For Immediate Release

ITEEA Announces Board of Directors Election Results

RESTON, VA., NOVEMBER 2, 2010 – ITEEA's professional and life members have completed a balloting process to elect a new President-Elect and Directors for Regions I and III.

Joining the ITEEA Board of Directors are:

- Bill Bertrand (President Elect). Bill is the Technology Education Advisor with the Pennsylvania Department of Education in Harrisburg, PA.
- Lynn Basham (Region I Director). Lynn is the Technology Education Specialist with the Virginia Department of Education in Richmond, VA.
- Joel Ellinghuysen (Region III Director). Joel is a technology education teacher at Lewiston-Altura High School in Lewiston, MN.

Also joining the ITEEA Board of Directors is John Brown, DTE, Department Chair and teacher at Mount Pleasant High School in Wilmington, Delaware. John will represent the Council for Supervision and Leadership (CSL). Rod Thompson, an associate professor in the Department of Secondary Education at University of Wyoming – Casper will also be joining the Board as the TECA (Technology Education Collegiate Association) Director.

Sincere thanks are extended to the new Board Members, for taking on this leadership role and to the other candidates, for bringing such a wealth of experience and talent to the balloting process. By being part of the ballot, each of the candidates has demonstrated leadership in the field.
